Additional Shipping Instructions: When sealing the supplied box (specially designed for registered-insured mail), simply wet the flaps and apply light pressure. The post office will not except plastic tape since the ink stamps will smear on these surfaces. The prepared box must be taken to the post office for scanning. A small fee (based on weight and value of items in the range of $10-$20) will be paid at the post office. Registered-insured mail is the most secure way to send valuables due to the nature of its internal security. Every checkpoint along its traveled route must be signed for by a postal authority. The recipient (Lovelady Diamond) must also sign for it when received as proof of delivery.

When the items are received, we will contact you immediately with a final offer. Upon your approval of the offer, a check will be mailed immediately. If necessary, overnight payments are available. If you decide not to accept our offer, the item will be shipped back at once at our expense using registered-insured mail.
